

Candidate Phil Murphy expressed support for pre-k in campaign statements, during print interviews and on the campaign website. Here's what now governor-elect Murphy said about pre-k just a few weeks ago on One-On-One with Steve Aduato:

Murphy: "Another thing we stand for is we want to get to universal pre-k as fast as we can..."

Interviewer: "Can we afford it?"

Murphy: "Ye(s) we can. I think we have to phase it in over several years. I don't think you can do that on a moment's notice. We stand for universal pre-k not just for some but for all."
