PRE-K OUR WAY NEWS

A MONTHLY NEWSLETTER JUNE 2016

As this school year draws to a close, we are reminded of all the children who will be unable to access high-quality preschool in the fall simply because of where they live. This is unfair, and we need our legislators to know that expanding pre-k access in New Jersey should be a priority. Contact your legislators today to let them know why you care about more of NJ's kids getting access to high-quality pre-k.

STORIES OF SUCCESS: LORENA BABOCI MADE SOME TOUGH CHOICES AS A PARENT

A mother and father moved from New York City to North Bergen, New Jersey and lost access to high-quality preschool. The only choice left for a high-quality program was a $1,500/month daycare. Does that seem fair?

Read Lorena's story and then share your own. Your experiences appeal to others, and they take action as a result. Your words could move others to bring pre-k their way. Share them today.

New Jersey legislators hope to increase the number of districts who receive state funds for free pre-k past 100 (almost a sixth of the state's districts) so that parents in those towns won't have to pay for early child-care services.
